

The Wyoming County Republican Committee met October 18, 2022 at the Moose Lodge.

The meeting was called to order at 6:35 by Chairman Davis Haire.

The Pledge of Allegiance immediately followed led by Debra Flynn.

Roll call was via sign in showing 23 members present and numerous guests.

A motion was made to accept minutes dated September 20, 2022 by Beryl Clark and seconded by Marge Krause.

Treasurer's report showed a main account balance of $31,238.40 and debit card account balance of $234.

Old Business

- Marge Krause gave updates on Fall dinner to be held October 22. Ashley Darby reminded everyone of door prizes. Joe Peters quickly spoke about moderating discussion at fall dinner.
- General Election updates on mass texting and mail advertisements depending on voter status. Frank Holdren is still looking for poll greeters. Bonnie Jayne will be placing ads in Rocket, Examiner and Penny Saver as discussed previously. Committee members as volunteered are calling all mail in voters, led by Donna DePue.

New Business

- Sheriff Roberts found a box in the courthouse basement belonging to the committee. Contents include previous minutes, bylaws, and misc. notes. Box has been turned over to committee and will be sorted/filed as appropriate.
- Jeannette Kitlan invited everyone to Headquarters on Halloween night for Tunkhannock's Halloween festivities.
- A Meet and Greet is being held with Congressman Dan Meuser Wednesday October 19 at Stone Hedge.

Next meeting to be held January 17, 2023 with location to be determined.

A motion to pay for tonight's venue was made by Jim Reynolds and seconded by Donna Spudis.

Motion to adjourn was made at 7:15 by Rick Wilbur seconded by Gregg Yunko.

Respectfully submitted,
Rebecca McClain
