Dear Mr. LaRock,

We write to express our deepest gratitude for your recent efforts to defend the sacred gift of life at the Virginia General Assembly. Our Virginia Catholic Conference staff has informed us of the leading role you have played in standing up for the unborn and standing against extreme measures seeking to strip away limitations on abortion.

The stance you are taking is courageous and of the utmost importance in defending the most vulnerable in today's society. We want to assure you that we and the Conference stand ready to continue doing all we can to assist in your defense of life and truth.

Most. Rev. Micheal F. Burbidge, Bishop, Catholic Diocese of Arlington
Most. Rev. Barry C. Knestout, Bishop, Catholic Diocese of Richmond

PARENTS MATTER – SCHOOL CHOICE

Dave LaRock added, "I opposed COVID-related school, church and business shutdowns, and mask and vaccine mandates which did far more harm than good. We owe it to kids and parents to learn from those mistakes and do whatever it takes to avoid going down those paths again."

Dave LaRock has had 3 School Choice bills killed by Democrats McAuliffe and Northam, and many more education reform and parental rights bills killed by Democrats in Committees, who care more about special interests, (teacher's unions, education bureaucrats, and woke school boards) than about helping kids get the very best education possible while saving taxpayer dollars.

FAITH MATTERS

VALLEY VALUES FAITH LEADERS SPEAK OUT

As Valley voters are going to the polls to choose a Republican candidate for Virginia Senate, Dave LaRock shares words from prominent faith leaders.

Mike Farris, a chief architect of the historic takedown of the deadly Roe v. Wade decision, is speaking up on the race for Virginia's First Senate District. Looking ahead to states stepping up to defend life, Mike Farris had this to say: "Dave LaRock is trustworthy, 100% prolife and is the person we need in the legislature to change hearts, minds, and laws."

Dave LaRock responded to the Farris endorsement, saying, "I share Mike's passion, and thanks to his team we are free to bring forward and pass laws to protect the most innocent. Right now, we need voters to take that few minutes of time to do their part by getting out to vote PRO-LIFE in this Republican primary.

PARENTS MATTER – SCHOOL CHOICE

Speaking on the benefits of School Choice, Dave LaRock said, "One of my favorite teachers is my wife Joanne who taught our 7 children at home over about 25 years and did a super job preparing them for life. John, our youngest just graduated with a degree in finance from James Madison University proving that school choice works and we need more of it."

Governor Glenn Youngkin said in a recent interview, "There is nothing more important to making Virginia — and the nation — the best place to live, work and raise a family than by meeting our obligation to offer all children a top-quality education. We must set our eyes on the future that unites us, and when students, their teachers and their parents are energized and engaged, we can."

FROM THE DESK OF MIKE FARRIS

Dear Republican friends,

I am writing to set the record straight about Dave LaRock.

Dave LaRock is trustworthy, 100% prolife and is the person we need in the legislature to change hearts, minds, and laws. After years of faithful service in the House of Delegates, he is running for an open seat in the Virginia Senate.

His challenger, John Massoud, has raised the preposterous claim that Dave LaRock is a liberal—particularly on the right to life issue. I have been around a long time in Virginia politics (I was the GOP nominee for Lt. Governor in 1993) and many in the conservative movement know me and my reputation as a conservative and for being 100% prolife.

But, to my newer friends, let me give you just a brief introduction.

I was the founding President of the Home School Legal Defense Association—a national group located in Purcellville, and Patrick Henry College, also in Purcellville.

For approximately the last six years, I was the President and CEO of Alliance Defending Freedom. This letter is written entirely for me alone and not for these organizations or any other.

While I was CEO of ADF, our team drafted the law in Mississippi that was the subject of the Dobbs case, and we served quietly and in the background as a part of the legal team for the Mississippi Attorney General's office in the Supreme Court of the United States for that case—which, as you know, resulted in the reversal of Roe v. Wade. Yes, I led the legal team that helped to reverse Roe.

I think my prolife credentials are beyond question.

I have known Dave LaRock since 1987. We have gone to church together for many years. I was his pastor for part of that time.

Dave is 100% prolife. Any and every prolife measure that comes to the floor of the Virginia Senate will always get Dave's support, without question.

Dave shares my view that we should take as much ground as we can and keep working until life is fully protected.

Dave has never disappointed me. He has been a true-blue conservative about everything: Life, The Second Amendment, Parental Rights, Taxes, Spending and more.

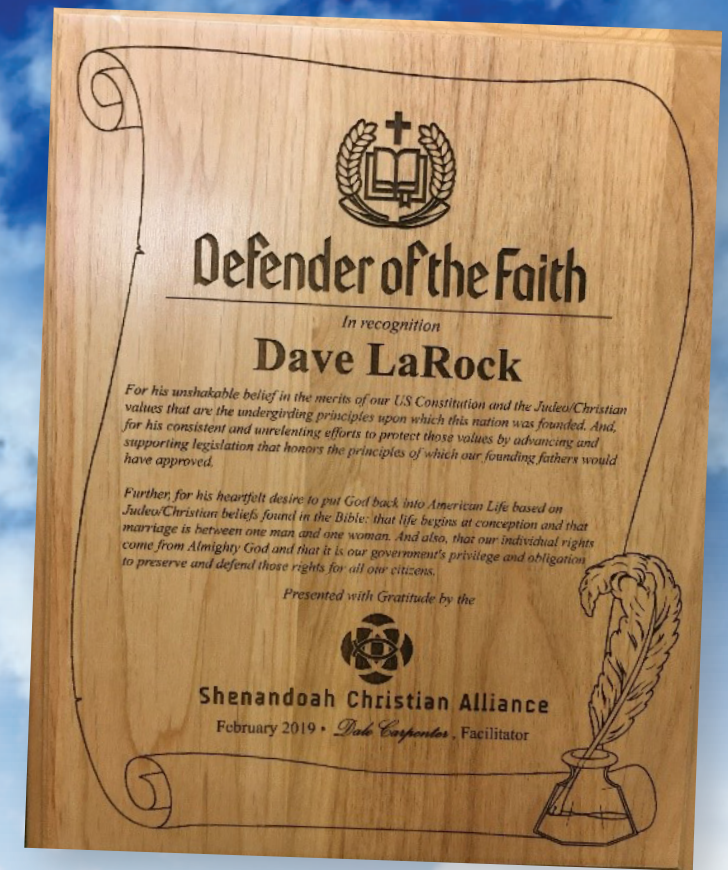

Dave LaRock has sterling character and is proven beyond any doubt to be a very consistent conservative.

Please ignore the dishonorable attacks on a good man. I urge you to vote for Dave LaRock.

DEFENDER OF THE FAITH IN RECOGNITION DAVE LAROCK

For his unshakable belief in the merits of our U.S. Constitution and the Judeo/Christian values upon which this nation was founded. And, for his consistent and unrelenting efforts to protect those values by advancing and supporting legislation that honors the principles of which our founding fathers would have approved.

Further, for his heartfelt desire to put God back into American life based on the fundamental values found in the Bible: that life begins at conception and that marriage is between one man and one woman. And, as our individual rights come from Almighty God, it is our government's privilege and obligation to preserve and defend those rights for all our citizens.
